

The Ring of Steel

Action Theatre

Where adventure and play safely meet!

Are you looking to bring a little extra adventure to your den, pack, patrol, troop or crew meeting this year? If your answer is “Aye!” then look no further! The award winning Ring of Steel under the direction of master swordsman, Maestro Christopher Barbeau can bring a show unlike any other to your port! Mystery and the mystique of the sword combine as we can bring popular characters including Captain Sparrow, Indiana Jones, Lara Croft and others to your gathering to compete for the prize!

We will entertain, educate and enchant as we share a collection of armor, arms and other piratical gear that we have assembled over three decades. Children of all ages can try on the armor of yesteryear and enjoy the timeless romance associated with pirates, knights, musketeers and heroes from through the ages!

Many different shows and programs are available ranging from 30-120 minute lecture/demonstrations to hands-on workshops and panel discussions. We are a “festival-in-a-box” with shows, games, prizes and we feature every style of stuntwork from Jedi swordplay to wild west shootouts. We appear in dozens of schools, libraries, birthday parties and other family-oriented venues every year so call us and we’ll customize a show just for you!

Our master of the blade with over 33 years of stuntwork experience is the fight director for the Michigan Opera Theater, the Toledo Opera, the Michigan Classical Repertory Theater, a 20-year veteran of the Michigan Renaissance Festival (Including several years as their fight director), a former jousting driver, and a fight arranger for 13 feature films and over 300 stage productions. His expertise and experience both before a crowd and behind-the-scenes will provide a compelling show for your local scouting event.

The Ring of Steel is a non-profit student organization at the University of Michigan

www.ringofsteel.org

The Ring of Steel Action Theatre
rosteel@umich.edu
(734) 320-1147

